LIKE FORREST GUMP'S BOX OF CHOCOLATES, YOU NEVER KNOW "WHAT YOU'RE GOING TO GET" WITH THESE "LEAST WANTED VALENTINES"

If you know where any of BC's five most wanted fugitives are, call Crime Stoppers

VANCOUVER, B.C. (February 10, 2026): Five of BC's most wanted criminals and suspects who remain on the lam as Valentine's Day approaches, were "unpacked from heart-shaped chocolate boxes" Tuesday by Metro Vancouver Crime Stoppers and announced as this year's "least wanted Valentines".

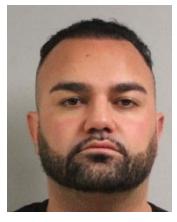

It's an annual public reminder to call Crime Stoppers ANONYMOUSLY if you have any information on where police can find and arrest these fugitives.

Two of the five ran off after being arrested in a large drug investigation in Vancouver two years ago and remain at large. In fact, Omid Mashinchi and Amir Navarchi are among six suspects arrested in 2024 during "Project Torque", a large-scale three-year police investigation into a Vancouver-based international "kilogram level" trafficking operation. Mashinchi also remains on the BOLO ("Be On The Lookout") national list of most wanted criminals in Canada.

A third "valentine", Gurkirat Singh, is also on the BOLO list. He is wanted by Delta Police on a Canada-wide warrant for sexual assault, invitation to sexual touching, and sexual interference of a person under 16 years old in 2024.

"Each year right before Valentine's Day, we remind people that scary, dangerous criminals are on the loose at any given time and reporting any information ANONYMOUSLY to Crime Stoppers can help police make an arrest," says Linda Annis, Executive Director of Metro Vancouver Crime Stoppers.

“Valentine’s Day is about being near those you want to be with, but these most-wanted criminals should be in jail and not near anyone. Someone, somewhere knows where these people are and we’re urging them to do the right thing and call us. Your anonymity is guaranteed by the Supreme Court of Canada and you’ll never be questioned or called to testify.”

TIPS TO CRIME STOPPERS WORK

Metro Vancouver Crime Stoppers received a record 5,490 ANONYMOUS tips in 2025 leading to 15 arrests, 32 illegal weapons seized and more than $3 million in property and illicit drugs that might never have been recovered without tips to Crime Stoppers.

Tips to Crime Stoppers that lead to the arrest and charge of any wanted criminal can lead to a reward of up to $5,000.

“We receive tips year-round for all kinds of crimes including gang and illegal weapons offences, and it really works. With five million pairs of eyes around the province, we hope someone might eventually spot one or more of these most wanted fugitives,” adds Annis.
